

Name: _____

1. Why is video communication significant to our society today? Give three examples of video communication that you engage in regularly.
2. The real world is often not like the world we see represented in video. Why is it important for us to understand the difference between the real world and the video world?
3. Briefly describe the three major phases of video production.
4. Identify several jobs in the video production field. What do these jobs entail?